Eating Out

Today was a school holiday. Susie and Mary were at home. They wanted to eat some sandwiches because they felt very hungry.

After that, they looked into the fridge to search for some ingredients. They saw some butter, a packet of cheese and a packet of ham.

However, they didn't find any bread. They were sad because they were very hungry and wanted to eat some sandwiches.

In the end, they went to Fun Fun Restaurant to eat some sandwiches. They felt happy because Fun Fun Restaurant's sandwiches are the most delicious sandwiches in town!

Teacher's comment: Great descriptions of the girls' feelings! Keep up this good work!
