Sam Went to Old Hong Kong

One day in the morning, Sam was in the bedroom. He was shocked because things were old. He saw old and short buildings and some old buses.

He went to the playground. He saw two girls. He wanted to play with the two girls, he felt happy. The girls were surprised. They played on the merry-go-round.

Later in the afternoon. He missed his family, so he sat at the roundabout. He felt sad. He wanted to go home.

Teacher's comment: You can write your story with some adjectives. Keep it up!
