

At the supermarket

3A Liao Zhenjie, Jackson

In the morning, Amy goes to a supermarket. She wants to buy some food and potato chips. She takes a shopping cart to carry the food.

The supermarket is very big. She can see many packets of potato chips, some packets of French fries and many boxes of fresh milk. She likes potato chips. She wants to buy three packets of potato chips because potato chips are her favourite food.

However, the potato chips are put on a high place. Amy is short. She is not high enough to get the potato chips. She feels unhappy. Suddenly, Amy sees a tall man in front of her. She asks him for help to get the potato chips. The tall man helps Amy to take three packets of potato chips for her. Amy says thank you to the tall man.

She pays the money and puts the potato chips in her shopping bag. She feels happy and goes home.

Teacher's comment

I like the way you tackled this writing. I love your vivid word choice. You express your ideas so well. Good job!

At a Buffet

3A GHALE LUXMI NATIVIDAD

I have a buffet lunch today at a hotel in Causeway Bay.

I go with my family to celebrate my grandmother's birthday.

There are some fish, cheese cakes, watermelons, rice and a lot of ice-cream on my plate. I like the rice with sauce, it tastes good and yummy. I like the ice-cream, it tastes sweet and delicious. I like the cheese cakes, they taste sweet and yummy.

I like the curry fish, it tastes spicy and delicious. I also like the chocolate milk, it tastes sweet and creamy. I eat a lot of food on that day and feel very full.

I like having buffet lunch because I can eat a lot of my favourite foods. It makes me happy and satisfied.

Teacher's comment

I love your attention to detail. This is clear, concise and well organized writing. You show an impressive grasp on this subject. That's really nice!

