

A lost bag

5A Wong Cheung Hei, Hayden

Yesterday, Chris and his sister Jane had lunch in a fast food shop. They wanted to have lunch before going back home. They were hungry.

Chris and Jane found an empty table. Just when they were about to sit down, Chris found a bag on a chair. He was puzzled. “Who is the owner of the bag?” asked Chris. Jane explained, “I guess it belongs to the man who just left.”

Suddenly, Chris shouted, “We are lucky! There is a lot of money in the bag!” Jane cried, “But we should not take the money, we should call the police!” “Ok.” said Chris who was sad.

After they called the police, the man found the bag and said, “Thank you!” He felt glad and grateful. He learnt that keeping his things carefully is important. At the end, he decided that he would be more careful.

Teacher's comment

You are able to write concrete and related ideas. A good use of language in general. Keep it up, Hayden.

A lost bag

5A Chung Lok Yiu, Yoyo

At lunch time, Chris and his sister Jane went to a fast food shop to have lunch. They bought fast food. Then they looked for a seat.

Ten minutes later, they found a seat and they also found a briefcase on a chair. They felt surprised. They thought that the briefcase belonged to someone. Jane said, 'Chris, you open the briefcase and take a look.' Chris opened the briefcase, then they saw a lot of money. Chris said, 'What do we need to do?' Jane said, 'Emm... I don't know, maybe we wait until the briefcase owner comes back to get it.'

They waited for some time and a man came to the briefcase. The man said, 'This briefcase is mine, thank you very much!' They said, 'No problem.' The man packed the briefcase and he went away. Jane said, 'I feel good, Chris.' Chris said, 'Me too! Can we have lunch now?' Jane said, 'Yes!'

Teacher's comment

It is well-written. You use dialogues in your writing, very good! Keep up the good work!

Good behaviour on public transport

5A Che Xinze, Ethan

It is important to behave well on public transport.

We should behave nicely on bus. We should talk softly because we don't want to disturb others. We should wait patiently because there are so many people waiting for the bus. We shouldn't eat or drink because it will make the bus dirty.

When we are on the aeroplane, we shouldn't move or run inside because it is so dangerous. If we see the seat belt light is on, we should stay in our seat and fasten the seatbelt because it can keep you safe. We shouldn't be late because the aeroplane will leave on time.

On the train, we shouldn't rush to the seat. We should give our seat to the elderly. We should hold the handrail tightly if we cannot find a seat when we are on the train.

We should behave well on public transport.

Teacher's comment

You are able to write clearly based on the topic. Keep up the good work.

Good manners on public transport

5A Wong Ching Wai, Victor

It's important to behave well on public transport such as MTR, bus and taxi, so here are some good tips for us to behave nicely on public transport.

Be considerate

It's important to be considerate on public transport. For example, we shouldn't talk loudly because it's rude. Also we should give our seats to the elderly kindly. In addition, we shouldn't stand in front of the door selfishly.

Be patient

We should be patient on public transport too because it's important. We should wait for people to get out first before we get on patiently. Moreover, we should line up on the platform orderly. We shouldn't push the other passengers rudely too.

Be clean

It's important to be clean too. Take for instance, we shouldn't eat or drink. Also, we should pick up tissue paper we drop on the floor immediately. Last but not least, we shouldn't throw the rubbish on the floor.

It's important to behave nicely on public transport. I hope you would be considerate, patient and clean on public transport.

Teacher's comment

Good attempt, Victor. I like the way how you express your ideas. Keep it up.