

Good behaviour on public transport

5B Chan Ho Sen, Willa

It is important to behave well on public transport.

We should behave nicely on the bus. We should talk softly and not disturb others. We should wait patiently at the bus stop because there are so many people waiting for the bus. We shouldn't eat or drink. Don't make the bus dirty.

We should behave nicely on the MTR. We should play the phone games quietly. We should talk softly on the phone. We shouldn't listen to music loudly.

We should behave nicely on the ferry. We shouldn't smoke. We shouldn't throw rubbish on the ground. We shouldn't scream on the ferry.

We should behave well on public transport.

Teacher's comment

You presented your ideas clearly and logically. Good use of adverbs. Keep up the good work.

In the morning, Jane and Chris were in a fast-food shop. They were finding a table to eat the food.

They saw a big, black bag on the chair. They were curious. Chris opened the bag and said, 'There is a lot of money in the bag!' Jane was shocked. They did not know who lost the bag. Then, they did not keep the bag because they are honest. They tried to ask someone about the bag, but no one knew.

Finally, they called the police. The police came and took the bag to the police station. They felt happy but they were hungry.

Teacher's comment

Good use of 'S O L D' at the end of the story. You are able to use more adjectives to describe the feelings of Chris and Jane.
