

A Buffet Lunch

3A Huang Kai Heng, Kevin

I have a buffet lunch in Causeway Bay on my birthday. I go with my family.

There are two pieces of pizza, one tub of ice-cream, one bowl of noodles, one slice of toast, some vegetables and one tub of candies on my plate. I like the candies. They taste sweet. They are yummy. I like the vegetables. They taste good. They are healthy. I like the ice-cream. It tastes good. It is delicious. I like the pizza. It tastes good. It is yummy. I like the noodles. They taste good. They are yummy. I like the bread. It tastes good. It is yummy.

I feel happy because I can eat delicious food.

I appreciate that you try to give detailed descriptions of the food you have at the buffet lunch. Good use of "a tub of" as the quantifier.

At the Supermarket

3A Lam Yik

One day, Moon goes to the supermarket. She wants to buy some chips. She plans to use a tote bag to carry the chips.

The supermarket is big. She can see some milk, biscuits, hotdogs and cheese. But she wants to buy a packet of chips because she is a chips lover and she is hungry.

However, the chips are too high. She cannot get them because she is not tall enough. She feels frustrated.

Luckily, she sees a man. So, she asks the man for help. The man then helps her take the chips. She feels happy.

You have a good plan of your story lines. I appreciate you try to use different adjectives of feelings e.g. "hungry", "frustrated" and "happy".
