

Name: Li Ho Hin, Alfie

Class: 1A

In my pencil case

This is my pencil case. It is blue. It is big. I have many things inside.

I have a ruler. It is transparent. It is short. I have a glue stick too. It is red. It is big. I have ten pencils. They are yellow and black. They are long. I have four erasers. They are white. They are small. I have a pair of scissors. It is red and silver. It is sharp.

I have no cutters. I have no paper clips either.

I like my pencil case and stationery items. I will keep them tidy.

Teacher's comment: A nice description about your pencil case. Good use of the connective "and" and the adverb "too". Well-done, Alfie!

Name: Chung Sik Yu, Cully

Class: 1A

In my school bag

This is my school bag. It is purple. It is big.

I have many things inside.

I have a pencil case. It is pink. It is colourful. I have a water bottle too. It is pink. It is tall. I have some books. They are thin. They are big. I also have a pack of tissue. It is white. It is small. I have some snacks too. They are orange. They are small and round. I have a mask. It is white. It is long and small.

I have no pencil sharpeners. I have no staplers either.

I like my school bag and stationery items. I will keep them tidy.

Teacher's comment: Good use of adjective "colourful" to describe your pencil case. You have used adverbs "too" and "either" to make your writing more fluent to read. Well-done, Cully!

Name: Liu Yuk Ching, Yuki Class: 1A

My pet

This is my fish. It is thin and small. It is orange and white. It has small eyes and a long tail. It also has a small mouth and two fins. Its tail is beautiful. It lives in a tank. It likes eating fish food. It likes swimming.

I like my fish because it is cute. I will take good care of it.

Teacher's comment: Good use of adjectives "beautiful" and "cute" to describe your fish. You have used the adverb "also" to make your writing more fluent to read. Well-done, Yuki!