Mid-Autumn Festival

Mid-Autumn Festival fell on 13th September this year. The weather was hot that day.

My family celebrated the festival at home. I had a lantern. It looked like a pig. I played lantern with my sister, Andrey. We watched the moon at night. I could see the full moon. It was beautiful.

Mum bought some special food at the supermarket for the festival. I ate mooncakes, starfruit and grapes. I liked the mooncakes the best.

I like Mid-Autumn Festival because I like eating mooncakes and starfruit.

Teacher's comment: Andrea, you are able to write more ideas on the topic.

Appropriate verb forms of simple past tense like 'celebrated', 'looked',

'played', 'could' and 'ate' are used in your work. Well done!

Making food

One day, Mary and Susie felt hungry. They wanted to eat some food for lunch so they tried to make sandwiches at home.

Mary and Susie opened the fridge and they looked in. they saw a box of butter, a packet of ham and some cheese. They felt confused because a loaf of bread was missing in the fridge. They felt sad.

They went to a supermarket to buy some sausages, bread and tomato sauce to make hot dogs instead. The hot dogs were delicious. They felt happy.

Teacher's comment: Hewson, the story is interesting and creative but you can try to write the steps of making hot dogs in the end of the story. Keep it up, I like reading it! Well done!
