Popular places in Hong Kong

There are a lot of wonderful places in Hong Kong. We interviewed a few teachers and classmates about their favourite places. Let's see what their favourite places are.

We have interviewed three teachers. They are Ms Shum, Mr Lau and Mr Kong. The first one is Ms Shum. Her favourite place is Disneyland. She has been there many times. The last time she went to Disneyland was in winter at Christmas. She took photos with the cartoon characters. She thought Disneyland was fantastic. Although she visited there many times, she didn't think it was boring. The second one is Mr Lau. His favourite place is Ocean Park. He has been there four times. The last time he went there was last year. He watched birds there. He thought it was very fun. The third one is Mr Kong. His favourite place is the same as Mr Lau. He loved to go to Ocean Park as well. He went there last year too. He watched the sea animals there. He thought Ocean Park was an exciting place.

Then, we have interviewed three of my classmates. The first one is Lai Tsz Lok. His favourite place is the Science Museum. He has been there five times. He went there last week. He played a lot of games there.

He thought it was informative and fun. It is a great place for kids to learn funny things. The second one is Colin Cheng. His favourite place is Sai Kung. He has been there once. He went there at Christmas. He likes swimming and building sand castle at the beach in Sai Kung. He thought it was great. The third one is Ashley Tam. Her favourite place is Ocean Park. The last time she went there was last summer. She rode on the cable car.

To conclude, there are plenty of famous places to visit in Hong Kong. If we have time, we can find some great places to visit and learn more about Hong Kong.

A lost bag

One afternoon, Chris and his sister, Jane were at Volly Vee fast food shop. They were having their lunch there because they were hungry. There were a lot of people. They were looking for a table.

After a while, Chris and Jane found an empty table. Chris also found a bag on the chair. Then, he told Jane, “Jane, there’s a bag on the chair.” Jane replied, “I think somebody left the bag.” Chris and Jane were surprised and puzzled. Soon, they opened the bag and found at least ten thousand dollars inside the bag. They were shocked. Chris asked, “What are we going to do?” Jane said, “We need to return the bag to the owner.”

Later, Chris and Jane decided to call their mother. Their mom said, “ You need to take the bag to the police station immediately.” They said, “Okay mom.” They thought that the owner of the bag would be very worried so they needed to return the bag to the owner. After this experience, they learnt that they should check their things before leaving. They decided that they would give the bag to the police so that the police could give the bag back to the owner. The next day, the owner of the bag called Chris and Jane. He thanked them for what they had done.

Teacher's comment: Kian, you are able to write concrete and related ideas based on the pictures. You are able to use what you learnt in class in your writing, for example "dialogues" and "SOLD". I like how you used "SOLD", which is Solution, Opinion, Lesson and Decision" to write about your ending.

Good manners on public transport

It is the Courtesy Week. It is important to behave well on public transport.

We should be considerate on public transport. Take for example, we should give our seat to the elderly kindly. We should put on our earphones when we play music and games on mobile phone. Also, we shouldn't talk loudly on the phone.

We should be clean on public transport too. For example, we should pick up tissue paper when we drop on the floor immediately. We shouldn't eat or drink on the MTR or bus. Also, we shouldn't spit on the public transport.

We should be patient on the public transport. Take for instance, we should line up on the platform orderly. We shouldn't push other passengers rudely. Also, we should wait patiently for people to get off first before we get on.

We should be nice to others and behave well on public transport.

Teacher's comment: Hubert, it is the first time we wrote this kind of text-type. Ideas are clearly and logically expressed. The organization is good also. Nice work.
