A lost bag

Yesterday Chris and his sister Jane were in a fast food shop. They bought some food. They wanted to find a seat but there were so many people. It was not easy to find a seat. They were sad.

Suddenly, they saw an empty table. They wanted to sit there. Chris saw a bag on the chair. They opened the bag and they saw a lot of money. They felt surprised. Jane said, 'When we finish eating, let's go to the police station and give the money to the police.'

Finally, they went to the police station. The police said, 'You are so honest.' Chris and Jane were so happy.

Teacher's comment: You used past tense correctly. Remember to use present tense in a dialogue. Keep up the good work!
